Organization

ABOMS is the certifying Board for the specialty of oral and maxillofacial surgery in the United States and is recognized and approved by the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association (CODA).

A committee was authorized at the 1945 annual meeting of the American Society of Oral Surgeons to establish an American Board of Oral Surgery, which would conduct examinations for the certification of specialists in oral surgery. In 1946, the American Board of Oral Surgery was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois. During the following year, the American Board of Oral Surgery was approved by the Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association and was authorized to proceed with the certification of specialists in oral surgery. The American Board of Oral Surgery was renamed the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery in 1978 to reflect the scope of the specialty. The name modification was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois.

The operation of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery (ABOMS) is entrusted to an eight-member Board of Directors. These Directors are Diplomates of the American Board of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery and Fellows of the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial

Surgeons (AAOMS). One Director is elected each year to an eight-year term by the House of Delegates of the AAOMS. An Examination Committee composed of Diplomates of the ABOMS is appointed by the Board of Directors to prepare and conduct the annual certification examination. The Board of Directors and its Examination Committee serve without salary.

OMSITE Overview

The Oral and Maxillofacial Surgery In-service Training Examination (OMSITE) is a 250-question computer-based examination designed to measure the competencies of residents in the field of oral and maxillofacial surgery. The OMSITE covers 10 subject areas designed to reflect the knowledge and skill of participating residents and assists Program Directors in effectively preparing residents for the Board Certification process. It is administered to residents enrolled in CODA-accredited oral and maxillofacial surgery training programs in the U.S. and Canada.

On the day of the examination, there will be a survey for the residents to complete. There are seven questions pertaining to their most recent training information. Their answers will determine how the OMSITE will be assessed on their score reports.
